I am Debasish. I am an experienced digital marketer with nearly 8 years of expertise. I am the founder of Digital 200, a successful digital marketing agency. I also provide consultancy services to multiple businesses. Our team of experts specializes in Social Media Management, Search Engine Optimization, Advertising, Email Marketing, Content Writing, Website Development, and Maintenance. Prior to starting my own venture in 2019, I worked for international TV channels and remote US companies.

Our approach sets us apart from the rest. We specialize in creating custom, visually compelling, and engaging content that will make your business stand out and captivate your target audience.

Here Are the Services We Offer:

- 1. Pages Setup and Optimization: We set up and optimize your social media pages for better search engine optimization (SEO)
- 2. Content Creation: We create graphics and captions that align with your brand's aesthetic.
- 3. Hashtags Strategy: We develop a strategic approach to using relevant and niche-based hashtags to increase visibility, engagement, and reach.
- 4. Content Scheduling: We handle the scheduling and publishing of content to your social media pages.
- 5. Banners: We create eye-catching banners for your social media profiles.
